

Name

Professor

Course

Date

Research Paper Outline

Topic: Friction between Pakistan and India

Introduction

- Brief discussions on friction and what some of the causes of friction (Hajir)
- Thesis of the paper which is to discuss the friction between Pakistan and India.

Main Body

- History of India (Hajir)
- How the conflict between India and Pakistan emerged and what were the causes of the conflict (Peers)
- Colonization of India by the British (Hajir; Lapierre, Dominique and Collins)
- How the geographical and environmental aspects resulted to the conflict between India and Pakistan (Peers) .
- Events that resulted to the friction between the two states that are still been experienced today (Lapierre, Dominique and Collins)
- State of the present relationship between India and Pakistan and the factors that have been crucial in determining the nature of the relationship (Aggarwal)

- Role that trade has played in the past and the roles that it could still play in the future as far as the relationship between India and Pakistan is concerned (Naseer)
- Role that World Super powers such as USA, UK and China could play in the relationship between the two warring countries (Siddique; Smith; Summit; Soherwordi)
- Other measures that can be adopted to minimize the tension between the two countries (Mussarat and Noor; Nasseer)

Conclusions

- Conflict between India and Pakistan
- Causes of the conflict
- Measures that can be adopted to address the conflict